

Where do your Iowa Audubon membership and fundraising dollars go?

- 2001-present: Conduct the Important Bird Areas (IBA) program in Iowa for Bird Conservation International and the National Audubon Society. Over 90 sites in Iowa are designated as IBAs, with intent of better managing these areas for declining species or as important habitat and migratory stopovers. Provide management guidelines CD-ROM to all IBA land managers.
- 2007: Partner donation to help Iowa Natural Heritage Foundation acquire and protect the last wild 96-acre (3/4 mi.) shoreline on Angler's Bay at Big Spirit Lake, Dickinson County.
- 2008: Served as a primary co-sponsor of the 4-state (Upper Mississippi River) Audubon Conference at Dubuque.
- 2008: Supported Pico Bonito National Park project in Honduras through the Avian Conservation Alliance of the Americas (ACAA) and Missouri Conservation Heritage Foundation. Project will protect neotropical bird habitat and help establish ecotourism opportunities for local Honduran residents.
- 2009: Supported Iowa DNR Forestry Bureau Forestry Legacy Project funding in the Loess Hills of Harrison County. Project received grant to protect and manage forestlands at Boy Scouts of America camp near Preparation Canyon and Loess Hills State Forest.
- 2009: Partner donation to help Iowa Natural Heritage Foundation acquire and protect 200 of forest and 1/4 mi. riverfront at Boone Forks WMA.
- 2009: Provided grant funds to assist Dorothy Pecaut Nature Center in Woodbury County construct "Bird Board" as part of major Center renovation project.
- 2009: Co-sponsored publication of the new Makoke Birding Trail Guide for central Iowa.
- Supporting member of Resource Enhancement and Protection (REAP) Alliance.
- Supporting member of Iowa Environmental Council (I.E.C.)
- Supporting member of the Iowa Water and Land Legacy Coalition, to promote the sustainable funding initiative for Iowa's Natural Resources.
- Publish membership newsletter 2-3 times annually.

Steve Anderson photo

Scott Peterson photo

